

Top Secret*BOLIVIA: Coup Plans

Military academy commandant General Garcia Meza reportedly met yesterday with all key regimental commanders to discuss plans for a coup. Most unit commanders in the La Paz area support Garcia Meza, but, [REDACTED] he still lacks crucial backing from the Santa Cruz and Cochabamba military commands. A second meeting may be held in Santa Cruz later this week. If Garcia Meza and the provincial commanders can resolve their differences, they are reportedly considering a coup as early as this weekend. Violence would be likely; labor and peasant leaders oppose a military takeover. [REDACTED]
